

person representative pursuant to a will. The third significant area is that it does provide for a jurisdiction choice of law, conflicts of law provisions. Under the current law, the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act, there is no such provision to require which state's law would govern in a particular dispute. And, finally, since the scope, the types of property have been expanded, the bill would change to allow or, excuse me, to limit liability of a custodian to the corpus of whatever the gift, the custodial property was. With that, I would urge the advancement of the bill and I'd try to answer any questions that may come up.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Lindsay. Does anyone wish to speak to this bill? Seeing none, we will now vote on the motion to advance LB 907. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on the motion to advance LB 907.

PRESIDENT MOUL: LB 907 is advanced. Before we proceed, I would like to call the senators' attention to the area under the north balcony. Special guests today of Senator Dennis Byars are Heather Esau, who is an FBLA member from Tri-County High School, and her parents, Bob and Barb Esau. Heather is shadowing Senator Byars today as part of her FBLA program. Would you please stand and be recognized. Welcome to the Chambers. Thank you. Also, while the Legislature is in session and capable of conducting business, I propose to sign and do sign LB 871, LB 398, LB 523, LB 682, and LR 9CA. We will now proceed with LB 369.

CLERK: Madam President, LB 369 introduced by Senator Rod Johnson. (Read title.) The bill was introduced on January 17, it was referred to Urban Affairs, advanced to General File. I have no amendments at this time, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Johnson.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Madam President, members, this bill deals with the placement of manufactured homes within cities where similar site-built homes are located. Building code restrictions in most cities that prohibited their placement, and this has become a major issue in many cities across the country, we have...I have introduced this bill I think for the last two or three years. During the last interim, the Urban Affairs
